

Earn Your Wings with

Mr. Hoggatt's

FELLOWSHIP OF PERSPICACIOUS ERUDITES

The Fellowship of Perspicacious Erudites is an unrequired opportunity for students who are interested in exploring and learning more about this amazing world of ours, beyond the instruction done in the classroom. All you have to do is learn about the topic, and then prove to Mr. Hoggatt that you have mastered the information (before or after school or during recess).

You are not required to do any of these topics in order. Work on the ones you want. Learn them in your free time (during snow days, while we're out for a holiday, when you're home sick, or when you're tired of your video games and your friends and you just need a break. Better yet, get with your friends (the ones you're not tired of yet), and learn some of these together.
